2013 Emerging Researchers National (ERN) Conference in STEM

February 28-March 2, 2013
Renaissance Washington DC Hotel
Washington, D.C.

The ERN Conference in STEM is aimed at college and university undergraduate and graduate students who participate in programs funded by the National Science Foundation, Division of Human Resource Development unit, including underrepresented minorities and persons with disabilities.

CONFERENCE FEATURES

Undergraduate and graduate poster and oral presentations

Career preparation workshops focused on employment searches and retention research and education opportunities for undergraduate and graduate students and faculty

Exhibitors from academic, government, business, and the non-profit sector with information about graduate school admissions, fellowships, summer research opportunities, professional development activities, and employment opportunities

For complete conference information, visit the ERN conference website at www.emerging-researchers.org.

Register Today!

The ERN Conference in STEM is hosted by the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS), Education and Human Resources Programs and the National Science Foundation (NSF) Division of Human Resource Development, within the Directorate for Education and Human Resources (EHR).